- Week of Prayer for Our Nation: November 1-8: Bishop Joseph Strickland is urging the faithful of the Diocese of Tyler to join together in praying the National Novena which will run from October 30th to the eve of the election, November 7th. Every election is important in the life of a free nation. In many ways this election cycle makes clear how essential it is for us as Christians to pray for our leaders "that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity" (1Timothy 2:2). As we choose leaders at all levels of government, let us be thankful to God for the political and economic freedoms that we enjoy, and let us pray for wisdom among Americans, that in this Year of Mercy we might be a nation of healers and reconcilers; that together America may be a nation committed to protecting the Sanctity of Life of every person, particularly the defenseless and the weak.

Mercy Meditation: "O Lord, goodness beyond our understanding, who are acquainted with our misery through and through, and know that by our own power we cannot ascend to you, we implore you: anticipate us with your grace and keep on increasing your mercy in us, that we may faithfully do you holy will all through our life and at death's hour." —From the Diary of Sister Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament

PREVENT ABUSE: The Diocese of Tyler is committed to provide help to anyone who may have been hurt or abused by a priest, deacon, religious, or anyone working in the name of the Church. Concerns about the conduct of Church personnel can be directed to Father Jonathon or to the Promoter of Justice: Rev. Gavin N. Vaverek, JCL, at 903-266-2159 or by email at promoter@dioceseoftyler.org.
