St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
June is the Month of the Sacred Heart.

A Year of the Eucharist in the Diocese of Tyler

The Tabernacles we find along our way. We look at the sacred Host and our eyes can see nothing of him; they do not see the loving gaze of Jesus, or his compassion... But with the strength of faith we proclaim him as our God and our Lord. Often, to express in some way the certainty of our soul and of our love, we have said to him: I firmly believe, Lord, that you are here, that you see me, that you hear me . . . Your gaze is just as loving as the gaze the good thief was able to contemplate, and your compassion is still infinite. I know that you are always attentive to the very least of my petitions, sorrows, and joys. (from In Conversation with God, Daily Meditations Volume 6: Special Feasts: January-June, pages 282-283 by Francis Fernandez Carvajal)
