- From Father Mark: Thank you! What a wonderful "Farewell Party" you gave last week. How wonderful to be with so many friends. What better than a big Texas style party. The friendship, food, and more was wonderful.

  Even better has been the last four years here at St. Charles Borromeo. I know I have learned so very much from each of you. We learn from each other. That includes our successes and our mistakes. I thank you for your patience with me for what I have done and what I failed to do.

  My prayers and best wishes are with you. Please pray for me and for vocations to the priesthood and religious life.
