St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!

April is the Month of the Holy Eucharist.

PARISH AND DIOCESAN NEWS

- Bishop Strickland respectfully asks that anyone attending any liturgical service wear a face mask and maintain 6 feet distance between households. Thank you for cooperating so that everyone is protected and feels less anxious.
- Mark your calendar! Bishop Strickland will be here on Wednesday, April 28th for First Holy Communion and Confirmation. The Mass will begin at 6 pm.
- LOSC wants your aluminum cans! We are working to help the environment, as well as raise money to help others. Please bring your clean aluminum cans, bagged, and place them in the bin behind the parish hall. Thank you for helping us help others with the funds we raise!
- Next weekend we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

St. Anselm, Theologian, Bishop Abbot and more.

Born near the border between what are now Italy and France, Anselm entered the monastic school of Bec in Normandy in 1060.

He eventually became the Archbishop of Canterbury in 1093, and is considered one of the most influential thinkers of medieval Europe and Christianity.

His motto credo ut intelligam ("I believe so that I may understand") reflected his intention to explain faith in God through reason.

St. Anselm is most famous for his argument for the existence of God, called the ontological argument. It goes like this: we understand God to be the greatest possible being; but a God who exists only in our minds isn't as great as one who is in our minds and who really exists; and since God is, by definition, the greatest possible being, he must exist in our minds and in reality. (!) St. Anselm was canonized in 1494. Feast Day April 21.
