St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
September is the Month of Our Lady of Sorrows.

A Year of the Eucharist in the Diocese of Tyler

Faith and the Holy Eucharist. Today, as we once again consider this closeness of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, we make a resolution to live closely united to the nearest tabernacle. It would be helpful to know which tabernacle is closest to our place of work or to our home. Then we will always be able to relate in our hearts to his presence there: as we can when we are engaged in some sport, whilst we are travelling . . . For the company of our good Jesus is too good for us ever to forsake him and his most holy Mother. (St. Teresa, The Mansions) Mary is always beside her son. So, go perseveringly to the Tabernacle, either bodily or in your heart, so as to feel safe and calm; but also in order to feel loved . . . And to love. (St. J. Escriva, The Forge) from In Conversation with God, Daily Meditations Volume Six: Special Feasts: January-June, page 293 by Francis Fernandez Carvajal)

- In a world where you can be anything, BE KIND. This pandemic has led to sweeping changes and disruptions in nearly every aspect of our daily life.
*With mandates and guidelines constantly changing, it's easy to feel overwhelmed.....that's okay. Be kind.
*If you need to stay home, stay home. If you need to go out, respect others when in public...that's okay. Be kind.
*Some are sighing with relief to go back to work knowing they may not lose their job, business, or home...that's okay. Be kind.
*Some people don't agree with our Governmental Executive Orders...that's okay. Be kind.
*Some are thankful they can finally have a surgery they've had to put off...that's okay. Be kind.
*Some will mask and some won't...that's okay. Be kind.
*We all have different viewpoints and feelings about this pandemic...that's okay. Be kind.
*Others may be fighting a battle you know nothing about. We all have a different story. Don't judge each other because you're not in their story. So remember ...please be kind.
Will you be the reason a person smiles today?
