St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
August is the Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

A Year of the Eucharist in the Diocese of Tyler

Faith with deeds. The second time the Lord appeared to the apostles after His resurrection, Thomas was with them. Jesus spoke to Thomas, saying: "Put your finger here and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing." Thomas responded immediately and exclaimed: My Lord and my God! These 5 words were an act of faith and of self-surrender. Thomas's reply was not simply an exclamation of surprise, it was an affirmation, a profound act of faith in Christ's divinity. My Lord and my God! These words can be used as a splendid ejaculatory prayer; we may often repeat them at the moment of the Consecration or as we genuflect in front of the Tabernacle. With this act of faith we too want to tell Jesus that we firmly believe in his real presence in the Tabernacle, and that He can do whatever He will with the whole of our life. from In Conversation with God, Daily Meditations Volume Six: Special Feasts: January-June, pages 2889-290 by Francis Fernandez Carvajal
