St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
October is the Month of the Most Holy Rosary.
A Year of the Eucharist in the Diocese of Tyler

Accepting the Invitation. “What great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the Lord our God is to us, whenever we call upon him?” (Dt 4:7) Today this should once more sink into our hearts: God is near. God knows us. God is waiting for us in Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Let us not leave him waiting in vain! Let us not through distraction and lethargy, pass by the greatest and most important thing life offers us. . . . Let us not pass it heedlessly by. Let us take time, in the course of the week, in passing, to go in and spend a moment with the Lord who is so near. During the day our churches should not be allowed to be dead houses, standing empty and seemingly useless. Jesus Christ’s invitation is always being proffered from them. This sacred proximity to us is always alive in them. It is always calling us and inviting us in. This is what is lovely about Catholic churches, that within them there is, as it were, always worship, because the Eucharistic presence of the Lord dwells always within them. —Pope Benedict XVI
