St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
September is the Month of Our Lady of Sorrows.

A Year of the Eucharist in the Diocese of Tyler

The Holy Eucharist: a memorial of the Passion. From the very beginning of the Church, Christians have cherished as a special treasure the words spoken by Our Lord at the Last Supper, those words which bread and wine were changed for the very first time into his most sacred Body and Blood. Some years after that great night on which the Holy Eucharist was instituted, Saint Paul reminded the first Christians in Corinth of what he had already taught them. Paul says: "I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you. This is in the tradition of the Church: first to 'receive' and then to 'transmit': the tradition was that the Lord Jesus on the night He was betrayed took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, 'This is my Body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way also He took the cup, after supper, saying, 'This is the cup of the new covenant in my blood. As often as you drink it do this in remembrance of me.'" (1Cor 11:23-25) These words are substantially the same as the words pronounced by the priest when he causes Christ to be present on the altar. (from In Conversation with God, Daily Meditations Volume Six: Special Feasts: January-June, pages 296-297 by Francis Fernandez Carvajal)
